REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF THE EXTENDED SHAREHOLDER LOAN

COF is held by the Company (through Lee's International) and is treated as an indirect non-wholly owned subsidiary of the Company and is the development arm of oncology products of the Group. The intended use of the Extended Shareholder Loan will be the general working capital of COF for the development of new drugs in oncology therapeutic area and the provision of financial assistance will generate additional profit attributable to the Shareholders. As such, the Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) are of the view that the provision of the financial assistance given by Lee's International for the benefit of COF will in turn benefit the Group. Therefore, after arm's length negotiation between COF and Lee's International (which is a shareholder of COF), Lee's International agrees to extend the term of the Shareholder Loan at a market interest rate to COF for the Extended Term. Accordingly, on 14 June 2018, Lee's International and COF entered into the Supplemental Agreement on the terms set out above.

The Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) considered that the Supplemental Agreement, which has been entered into after arm's length negotiation between Less's International and COF, are not in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Group but are on normal commercial terms and the terms therein are fair and reasonable and in the interest of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

Ms. Leelalertsuphakun Wanee, Ms. Lee Siu Fong and Dr. Li Xiaoyi, all are executive Directors and substantial Shareholders, are indirectly (through PCH) interested in the issued share capital of COF. As a result, all of Ms. Leelalertsuphakun Wanee, Ms. Lee Siu Fong and Dr. Li Xiaoyi are considered to have a material interest in the transactions contemplated under the Supplemental Agreement and are required to abstain, and have abstained, from voting on the relevant Board resolutions to approve the Supplemental Agreement. Save for the above, no Director has a material interest in the transactions contemplated under the Supplemental Agreement and none of them is required to abstain or has abstained from, voting on the relevant Board resolutions to approve the Supplemental Agreement.
