

Lee's Pharm Announces its Chief Executive Officer, Dr. Benjamin Li wins the EY Entrepreneur Of The Year® 2015 China Award

EY Entrepreneur Of the Year (EOY) is the world's most prestigious business award for entrepreneurs. The China program, launched in 2006, has become a widely recognized award in China that honors bold entrepreneurs who achieve success by combining ability with opportunity. In particular, the program recognizes the benefits that entrepreneurs and their entrepreneurial spirit bring to the economy of China, by creating employment opportunities and enhancing the competitiveness of Chinese enterprises.

The awards program recognizes entrepreneurs who demonstrate excellence and extraordinary success in such areas as innovation, financial performance and personal commitment to their businesses and communities. Dr. Benjamin Li was selected as one of the Award winners in the Pharmaceutical & Life Sciences sector.

Dr. Benjamin Li is the CEO and founder of Lee's Pharmaceutical Holdings Limited (Lee's Pharm). He holds a Ph.D. of Pharmacology from the University of Illinois at Chicago and is a life member of its Alumni Association. He was also a postdoctoral fellow responsible for R&D in cardiovascular drugs with Parke-Davis Research Division of Warner-Lambert Company, a major pharmaceutical company in United States. Dr. Li is also an adjunct professor at Hong Kong University of Science and Technology and vice chairman of Hong Kong Biotechnology Organization, committed to promoting the training of biotech professionals and the development and upgrade of the biotech industry.
